Mother bear usually has from one to four baby bears. They are born in the winter and drink their mother's milk. They live with their mother for one or two

Ten tips for coping with stress

People say that stress can sometimes be a good thing because it gives you the motivation to do your best. But stress can also have a very bad effect on your mind and body. It can cause sleeplessness, worry, sudden changes of mood, depression and illness. Here are ten ways to fight stress.

+ (1) B

By doing this you will feel in control and decide what things are more important. If you feel prepared, stress will have less chance. Remember that much stress is caused by doing things when there isn't enough time. So try to plan your life.

+ (2) E

Don't worry about doing something because you are afraid you will fail, and don't keep telling yourself you will do it later – just do it now! The sooner you take action, the more time you will have if anything goes wrong.

+ (3) J

Keeping your body healthy reduces stress. Stop drinking too much coffee and don't eat so many sweet things. Make sure you get enough sleep and vitamin C. Try exercising in the morning and going for longer walks at least once a week.

+ (4) H

It works because getting more oxygen into your body relaxes you. You can either take up yoga or simply try breathing in deeply through your nose then letting the air out through your mouth, and then repeat it ten times.

— (5) G

Doing something you really enjoy means you get a chance to take a break and “recharge your batteries”. People who don't do this feel depressed. Then their problems seem bigger and they find it difficult to put them in perspective.

+ (6) D

If you think negatively, stress can dominate. But if you keep telling yourself that you can do things and that you know what you are doing, stress often goes away. It is important to try and build a positive attitude to your life.

+ (7) I

People often say that “a change is as good as a rest”, and this is very true. Find out about new things. When you realize that the world has far more possibilities than the things you usually concentrate on, you will forget your problems.

+ (8) A

Telling people about your problems can often help. This way you feel less lonely. You should also tell people such as teachers or boyfriends/ girlfriends or parents how stressed you feel about certain things. They may be able to help.

+ (9) F

Find a place where you have space to think and rest. Try to use this place to sit down and write some possible solutions to the things that are stressing you. Attacking the problem is better than just waiting for it to go away.

- ~~A.~~ Communicate.
- B. Organise.
- C. Meet new people.
- ~~D.~~ Stay positive.
- E. Don't put things off.
- ~~F.~~ Try to solve your problems.
- ~~G.~~ Read a good book.

- I. Try new things.
- ~~J.~~ Exercise your body.
- K. Remember to have fun.

honestly
to say

I'd like to tell you my personal opinion about watching films. I'm a 14-year-old teenager and to be honest I'm not a very talkative person. I don't like big companies and noisy parties. But I still enjoy going to the cinema as much as I like watching films at home.

Different people ~~also~~ prefer different ways to watch films. I think it depends on a person's character, interests and hobbies. Speaking about me, I enjoy both ways. Sometimes I watch films at home and sometimes I go to the cinema. I'm sure that every way has its own advantages and disadvantages.

Going to the cinema can bring a lot of fun. Usually people go to the cinema with their friends or family. It's a great opportunity to have a get-together and spend some time with someone you appreciate. 120 140

Watching films at home is a cozy, warm and relaxing way to spend your evening, for example. Most likely you watch the film alone and create a perfect atmosphere for yourself. This process can be calming and entertaining.

In conclusion I'd like to say that both ways are wonderful in their own way. As for me, watching films at home is a perfect opportunity to rest and enjoy my own company.

To go to the cinema or to watch films at home?

Write an essay and give your personal opinion.

Write 120-140 words.

1. Write an introduction
2. Give your personal opinion
3. Draw a conclusion

Thank's for your question!

Let me introduce myself at first. My name is Daniel.

~~Now~~ I'm in 9th grade I study English regularly.

Now I'm going to answer your question about watching films.

Well, I'm a lazy and busy person so that is why I like staying at home. As for me, to watch films at home is better, than to go to the cinema. Firstly, you can choose any film you want and watch it with pauses. Secondly, it is very comfortable to stay home and don't go anywhere. You can take some food, a pillow, go to your bed and relax. You don't have to worry about weather, clothes and the other ones.

In conclusion, I would say that there are advantages and disadvantages to both methods, and everybody choose what they want.

That's all for now. Sorry, I have to do my project.

I'm waiting for new questions from you.

Good luck,

Daniel
